Well-proportioned three-bedroom end of terraced house situated in a popular residential location with a driveway and garden. No forward chain.

£275,000 Freehold

Manns & Manns are thrilled to market this lovely three bedroom end of terrace property in Coates Road, a location popular with families, and it is easy to see why. Perfectly positioned for convenience and community, this is a setting that delivers on all fronts. Families will appreciate the excellent choice of local schools; Hightown and Valentine Primary Schools and Oasis Academy Mayfield are in close proximity. The area is well connected, with nearby access to the M27, it also offers excellent transport links into the city of Southampton via bus.

Having remained within the same family's ownership for over 50 years and originally constructed of pre-cast reinforced concrete, it has since undergone an NHBC approved repair in 1998. The property now shows brickwork to the exterior walls, and we understand from the seller's information it was repaired with block work to the interior. Arranged over two floors, the ground floor accommodation comprises two reception rooms, a kitchen, and an outhouse. On the first floor are three bedrooms and a bathroom. Outside are gardens front and rear, with a driveway providing off-road parking.
